

PTA Meeting Minutes February 12, 2015

Attendees: Elizabeth Schwartz, Christine Sullivan, Connie Gaylord, Susan Hans, Kaiya Korb

Funding Requests

Silk Road Music Duo

The above duo are performing at HUHS on May 20, 2015 and reached out to valley elementary schools for funding of a second performance. The cost of $500 to be divided amongst elementary schools.

Kaiya to reach out to HUHS to check availability of their auditorium for an evening performance. The Valley Players occupancy does not qualify for community wide performance.

Funding request undecided until availability of HUHS is determined.

Laura Brines - Everybody Wins Family & Volunteer Dinner

The Everybody Wins reading program hosts an annual dinner to give the chance for families and volunteers to come together. Peter Burns will be the guest speaker and will be funded by the rotary.

Funding request $200.

PTA agreed to $120 and asks that being that this is an annual event that it is planned for in advance.

Elizabeth to email Laura Brines.

Other Business

Hannah's House Presentation Request

Barbara Christie-Garvan requests the opportunity to present to the PTA. She would like to share information on co-sponsorship of Hannah's House workshops, survey workshop needs and find a connection.

PTA welcomes the presentation to be given at the next PTA meeting.

Sue to email Barbara.

Book Fair - March 16 - 20, 2015

Elizabeth met with Jane from Bear Pond Books and put together a preliminary list. DCF book list to follow. Journals will not be on offer this year.

Elizabeth will organize volunteers and Sheila Fiaschetti will continue her involvement. Thank you Sheila!

March 6, 2015 is scheduled date for collection of books.

Next meeting March 12, 2015